Most all in this section killed their meat hogs during the recent cold weather. The so much talk of panic does not seem to effect any one in this section. Lots of work still going on and good prices being paid for history and our two merchants seem to labor and our bromer paid for in board and growing trade with a nice stock of goods on hand. Mr. I F. Kidwell has moved his stock of Mdse, from the ford of Copper Creek to Gum Sulphur. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kelton are visiting relatives; at Junction City. The birds in this neighborhood have lived hard for the past two weeks. Most of the farmers in this section have crobbed a nice crop of corn. Mr. John J.
