Dale Jarrett gets second consecutive win

Second consecutive win by Gerald Hodges The Racing Reporter Dafe Jarrett took the lead from teammate Ricky Rudd with 6 laps re-maining in the 500 lap Virginia 500 for his third Winston Cup victory of 2001.

The key to Jarrett's win was tire management. Crew Chief Todd Parrott had told Jarrett to come in for fresh tires after a late race caution. Back on the track, he began to close fresh tires after a late race cautom. Back on the track, he tegan to close on Rudd, who did not stop for tires. "It was a great race all day," said Jarvett. "It was my mian in the pits (Todd Parrott), that really made the right call. I know Ricky wanted to win, but I just had also better times. Rudd and his team had a broketer times. Rudd and his team had a broketer those problem on their No. 28 Ford. Havoline early in the race that had to be repaired.

"We had to play catch op all day, said Rudd, "Because of the brake line we got out of sync on our tire stops and were a sitting duck at the end." Jeff Burton led the end." Jeff Burton led the end. Jeff Burton led the ends laps of tires with 24 laps remaining and did not have enough time to catch the two leaders.
