Judge proclaims Rodger Bingham week in county

Special to the Signal By RCHS vaident Pravis Burton Mayor Gu sare familiar with the his show on CBS sailed "Survivor]! The Australian Outback." 16 Americans were felt stranded in the harsh Australian outback, forced to work together to survive.

Of course, the word-survive means a few different things. In this scenario, survival means not only to gather water, and avoid sun posson, but to also make nice with fellow miss members so that the contestant would not be voted off at Tribat To avoid the vote many contestants, were steady, backstabbing, and didn't care to lie Although, there was one contestant that avoided these tactocks. Rodger Bingham, from our wooderful state of Kentucky. Becauses fire Rodger Bingham so excellently represented the Commonwealth. The RCHS. Y-Club and FCCLA thought it appropriate to join the state Legislanter and Governor Paul. Patton in honoring, this outstanding Kentuckian. So with the help of Couinty Judge Executive Buzz Carlofists, the Y-Lib and FCCLA, declare the week, of April 23rd, Rodger Bingham week. Rodger Bingham week. Rodger Bingham thas represented our state amazingly. Through his Christian way of life, he has proven to be an excellent role model to not only people in Kentucky, but all over the nation. His interest and dedication to the cause of education have tuckians are reminded that "Education Pays."

made him a valuable asser is all Ken-tuckians are reminded that "Educa-tion Pays."

Also this week, the students at R.C.H.S. are participating in the very important CAFS resting.

Along with "Rodger Bingham Week", students are encouraged to do their best and "Survive" the CATS test.

Title IX requires equality

Volleyball will help RCHS comply

By; Richard Anderkin Things are changing drastically in the way high school athletics are handled in Kentucky schools, that is when it comes to equality for both the comes to equality for both the X is a federal law that was passed in 1972 and requires equality between boys and girls in sports.
For the most part, Rockesste County High School is in presty spool shape, although they were in noncompliance of the law because they did not offer a fall aport for female athletes.
