Nurses of the Year chosen at RHRCC

As part of the National Nurses Week, the more than 150 nurses at Rockcastle Hospital and Respiratory Care Center, Inc., have chosen two of their co-workers as the hospital's Nurses of the Year.

Andrey Hamm, RN and Julie Wilson, LPN, were chosen by their peers to represent registered nurses and licensed practical nurses from RHRCC at the annual Kentucky Nurses Association banquet in Louisville on May 11.

Hamm, who works on the Acute Care Unit, has worked at the hospital since 1985. She began working as a patient care assistant. In 1990, she went back to school and earned her nursing degree from Somerset Community College.

"The thing I like most about my job is that I can see the difference I make in people's lives," she said. "Just knowing that I've helped another human being is very rewarding."

Hamm is married to Alvin Hamm of Brodhead and is the daughter of Curtis and Loretta Thomas of Orlando.

Wilson began her nursing career at RHRCC in 1992. She works on the Long-term Care Unit, which specializes in treating ventilator department patients. Wilson is a graduate of the LPN program at Danville School of Practical Nursing. Chosen because of her caring attitude and efforts to give 110 percent to her patients, Wilson said she is proud to have been selected by her co-workers.

"I really enjoy patient care, but having good co-workers makes my job even better," she said.

Wilson is married to Douglas Wilson of Richmond and is the daughter of Charles and Mary Rose Brummett of Crab Orchard.

Betty Purcell, RHRCC's director of nursing, said the Nurse of Year Award is a tradition at the hospital.

"Choosing the nurses of the year is always challenging because all of our nurses are dedicated to their patients and our community," Purcell said. "The fact that the winners are chosen by their peers makes the award even more special."

The work of America's 2.6 million registered nurses to save lives and to maintain the health of millions of individuals is the focus of this year's National Nurses Week. Annually, National Nurses Week begins on May 6 and ends on May 12, the birthday of Florence Nightingale, founder of nursing as a modern profession. Traditionally, National Nurses Week is devoted to highlighting the diverse ways in which nurses, the largest health care profession, are working to improve health care. Rockcastle Hospital and Respiratory Care Center, Inc., is a non-profit community hospital, which is accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations. It operates inpatient and outpatient acute care programs; 60 long-term beds for ventilator-dependent patients, and a home health care services. The hospital was established in 1956 and treats patients from across Kentucky, Tennessee and several other states.

What Saith the Scriptures

Psalm Rm 14:10-12 we read, "But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at naught thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God." This is such a sobering thought, to think that we must give an account of ourselves before our maker. I can remember growing up, doing something wrong and be called before my parents to give an answer for myself. Or being in school and being called by the teacher to go to the office over an incident. How much more so, it is to think, of standing before the one who knows absolutely all things that I have said, done and even thought! There is only one way that we can even possibly hope to face God in the judgment with hope, and that is to be a faithful child of God. Only those who have stepped out on the promise of God in faith and obedience shall be ready to meet their maker. Are you ready to give an account of yourself???
