"What Saith the Scriptures"

"The book of Hebrews begins with the affirmation that God has spoken to mankind, 'God, who at sundry times and in divers manners, spoke in time past unto the fathers by the prophets. Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.' ch 1:1-2. Jesus is God's spokesman for today. We are not to listen to Moses and Elijah; i.e., the law and the prophets; but to God's beloved Son. This is what we learn from the mount of transfiguration. 'And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.' While he yet spoke, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, 'This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased, hear ye him.' Matt 17:3-5. Now notice, God did not say, 'hear ye THEM,' but 'hear ye HIM.' Now we have a warning if we refuse to listen to Jesus, 'See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape; if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.' Heb 12:25. Are you listening to Jesus today?"
