Happy 7th Birthday
Maggie Jane Rose on June 13th
Maggie, we love you. You are the most strongest person we have ever known. Your life here on earth has really been rough. Well, we believe you were born for a reason: To bring joy to so many lives. To inspire so many people. To make people realize a smile just isn't a smile. To show people not to take things for granted.
Thank you Maggie for all you have been and will be in all our lives. You don't need to be able to walk or talk or hold a hand to let someone know you love them. We can just look at you and feel the love radiate down from Heaven. We thank you for sharing your life with us.

When I was very small, God took my Father to Heaven to be with Him.
Then one day, God looked down on me and my mommy and God said that child needs a Daddy. It just couldn't be any daddy. He had to be a special daddy. A daddy that would love me for who I am.
Then one day you came into mine and mommy's life. You fell in love with us. You know that I can't talk or give you a hug, but if I could I would tell you: Thank you for being my daddy. Thank you for loving me like your very own. Thank you for taking such good care of mommy and me, but before I would say anything, I would say, "I love you Daddy."
Happy Father's Day,
Angie Nicely

To: Gary Langford, Sr.
I love you daddy. I know I haven't been the perfect daughter, and you probably think you haven't been a perfect father. We are both probably right.
As I sit here, I recall all the times you hugged me and told me you loved me. All the time you spent with us kids, fishing, swimming, playing and all the other stuff fathers do with their kids.
Most of all, I remember those tears falling down your face when you saw your first grandson (Dylan). Daddy at that same moment I felt how much you must love me. I thank you for giving me life, so I could give life to your two grandsons. Those two grandsons were my present to you.

Who Was Herman "John" Morris?

"Father's Day 2001"
He was a Father, a loving Father who came to me when I was only eight years old. He was God's gift sent to me from Heaven. He took me in and He raised me with love and treated me with the utmost respect. He was both my Mother and Father. He was always the one I ran to every time I had a problem. Only he understood the things that I was going through and he shared my pain with me.
Throughout the years, he brought me out of feeling insecure, unloved and unwanted and in his place gave me security and never ending love. He made me feel like I was a very special person and that meant the whole world to me! He was the best thing that ever could have happened to a child that was in my shoes and I will always be grateful for that. You couldn't ask for a better person, a better friend and a better Father.
I love you Papa John and I will always miss you every day of my life!

Happy Father's Day Papa John!
Sadly missed on Father's Day
Love Always, Your Daughter
Tammy Clifford
