Wilson receives award at Centre College

Katie Wilson of Mt. Vernon received an award during the recent Academic Honors convention at Centre College.

Wilson was the recipient of the West T. Hill Dramatic Arts Prize. The prize is presented to a graduating senior having strong concentration in dramatic arts, who is judged to have contributed most to the dramatic arts program over a period of four years.

Wilson is the daughter of Thomas and Judith Wilson of Mt. Vernon and is a graduate of Rockcastle County High School.

Kentucky's highest ranked national institution, Centre is listed by U.S. News and World Report among the country's top 50 national liberal arts colleges. Centre leads all colleges and universities in the percentage of alumni who give annual financial support.

Daughter named to Dean's List at Berea College

Emily Daugherty, daughter of Larry and Susan Daugherty of Rt. 3, Broadhead was named to the Dean's List at Berea College for the fall term 2000.

To be eligible, a student must maintain a 3.2 average and earn grades of B or better in at least four full-credit courses, the equivalent of 16 semester hours.

Berea is a non-denominational, liberal arts college that offers bachelor of arts degrees in 22 areas of study and bachelor of science degrees in agriculture and natural resources, business administration, technology and industrial arts and nursing. There is no charge for tuition and each student works at least 10 hours a week to pay living expenses.

Hammond named to Dean's List at Transylvania

Rockcastle County High School graduate and Transylvania University senior Bethanie Hammond has been named to the Dean's List for the 2001 winter term.

To be named to the Dean's List, a student must achieve at least a 3.5 grade point average during the term. Hammond, a biology major, is the daughter of Larry and Rebekah Hammond of Mt. Vernon.

Transylvania, founded in 1780, is the nation's sixteenth oldest institution of higher learning and is consistently ranked in national publications as one of the top liberal arts colleges in the country. Transylvania is the only Kentucky college ranked in Yahoo! Internet Life magazine's recent list of 100 "most wired colleges."
