RCHS Dance Team set for new season

The 2001-2002 RCHS Dance Team recently completed a successful private camp held at the high school. The new squad, consisting of 20 members, will be the largest to ever represent RCHS.

"The girls have worked extremely hard and we have high hopes for a great season," said coach Christa Rose. "We are working with a private choreographer from Lexington this season and have put together some very exciting shows," added Rose.

The dance team asks that you please come out for support this year; you won't want to miss these new performances. This year the dance team will ROCK to a mixture of hard rock, hip-hop, and a special production of GREASE. The girls would especially like to thank the following local businesses for sponsoring and providing lunches during camp: Pizza Hut, Wendy's, Godfather's Pizza, McDonald's, Young's Pharmacy and Dairy Queen.

The Dance team will be having a yard/bake sale at the First Christian Church parking lot on August 4th and a "Don Warf Benefit" car wash at Wendy's parking lot on August 11th. Please comeout and show your support; it will be greatly appreciated.
