In Loving Memories

A Memory Note for My Sister, Mollie Westerfield

A Memory Note for My Sister, Mollie Westerfield
for her birthday, August 6th Written by her baby sister, Lora W. Hamilton
Mollie, I can't let you birthday come and not write a memory note. You ween't old, just ready to go. Your little black eyes, were all a glow.
Your face was shining bright, Just a card wasall right. She read them over and over again. Her voice was so sweet as she sung Jesus Loves Me.
Mollie, you wont be handicapped in Heaven. You will be in that great chair singing with the angels. The must beautiful one will be you. Your voice will be so strong and load. You will be with Christ Ioo. Mollie, you well see a so many tears have

I know, you are resting in the arms of Jesus and nothing can harm you. Your sister, Lora Westerfield Hamilton

What Saith the Scriptures

"What Saith the Scriptures"

Jesus taught, "And said. Verify I say into you. Except ye be converted, and become as Itile children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven." Matt. 18.3. Humility is an essential quality to becoming a citizen in the kingdom of God. Without it we shall never force irrito God is family of believers. James records, "But he giveth more grace, Wherefore he stail, Ged resistch the proud, his giveth grace union the humble." James 46. It is she, proud of heart that God will resist. When we are on the opposite side of God, we are on the losing side. But, the Lord is so gracious and mercifal to those who will humble themselves like the little child, and will spaint to believing and obeying his will. It is a proud man that will reject the Lord's seaghings and teach his own doctrine. "If any man teach otherwise, and consume not windows moveds, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the discrime which is occording to geallness. He is proud, knowing nothing. I Tim 6.3-4a. Have you humbled yourself like the little child, and submitted to his will?"?
