In Loving Memories

In Memory of Dad & Mom, Robert Willmott (died Aug. 13, 1984) and Nettie Willmott (died Aug. 13, 2000)

Dad and Mom, For all the things you've been to us, Our guardian and our guide: For truths you have so gently taught, And all the tears you've dried, For faith and understanding, When we faltered on our way We owe you so much more than words can ever say. So on August 13th, we'll be thinking Especially of you. Knowing that there is happiness, In heaven with God, for both of us. Every day hour bring you happiness Mayday of every year... For all the things you've been to us We love you both so very dear! Your daughters, Bobbie Durham & Grace K. Elder

In Memory of Bennett L. Burton, who passed away August 16th, 1981 and Barbara L. Anglin, who passed away June 22nd, 2001. No farewell words were spoken. No time to say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it. And only God knows why. Our hearts still ache in sadness, And secret tears still flow. And what it meant to lose you all, No one will ever know. Since you'll never be forgotten, We pledge to you today, A hollow place in our hearts, Is where you'll always stay. Sadly missed by mother, Vellie Burton & family

"What Saith the Scriptures"

The scriptures affirm that "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons." by Peter in Ac 10:34. Paul also said it in Rom 2:11. "For there is no respect of persons with God." Some have misused this biblical concept. I heard the reasoning the other day, since God caused people to speak in tongues in the first century, he must do the same for us, or God would be a respecter of persons. Such is not so! Listen to these words: "And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Have all the gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?" 1 Cor. 12:28-30. The answer to all these questions is NO. Not everyone even in the first century spoke in tongues. Yes, God is no respecter of persons when it comes to the judgment, nor is he a respecter of persons when it comes to salvation. But do not misapply a biblical concept further than what is intended, this is called "rightly dividing the word of truth."
