"Mommy"
 I'm so blessed to have you in my life I hope I've been a good enough daughter without bringing too much stress in your life.
 I love you in so many ways, you're more than just my mom.
 You're a person that touched me and helped me and kept me strong.
 You've helped me with all my problems even if that meant you couldn't be there, your voice stayed strong and always remained in my head.
 You gave me life and taught me how to live now it's my turn and I hope that's something I can give.
 Thank you for being all you could be and being my friend. I will always have your back the way you've had mine.
 You're a major part of me and in my heart everyday you are special, to you Angel Singleton this poem I give to my mother, I love you and happy birthday.
 Happy 18th Birthday on November 2nd
 Love Your Little Girl,
 Natalie Jamica Danielle Singleton

"Daddy"
 You walked into my life when I was only nine months old.
 You held me in your arms and loved me just like your own little girl.
 A daddy is somebody that's always there when a child needs a helping hand, and that is what makes you special in every way.
 You made me and mommy so happy knowing you brought joy to our hearts.
 Daddy, today is your day and that's special to me.
 I know I have a father, but it takes someone special to be my daddy and that person is you.
