

Mt. Vernon Message

Each year students in grades P1-fifth grade are invited to participate in the Jim Claypool Conservation Art Contest. The theme of this year's posters was Water Conservation. Ms. Tammy Schrader, art teacher helps judge the posters according to the contest criteria. The top three entries of the school are sent to Central Office and then sent on to the state level to be judged. Pictures are our school winners - Danny Barnes, Cody Kirby and Ronnie Laimhart.

Mark your calendars for our annual Penitentes concert. The honors chorus will be performing on Thursday, December 13. Their first performance for the school will be at 1:45. The public performance will be at 6:30. Project Wisdom narrators for last week included: Chad Burdette, pastor at Northside Baptist Church; Rachel Woodall, student; Adrienne Childress, student; Rhonda Baker, instructional assistant; Jamie Cornelius, music teacher. Thank you for taking time to participate in this project. The quote for this week is "Virtue is its own reward." Last week's art prize winner was Jacob Riddle from Mrs. McQuary's class. He chose markers as his prize. Congratulations, Jacob!
