

Owens helps brighten the holiday for children

Rockcastle County High School graduate and Transylvania sophomore Angela Owens helped brighten the holiday season for 38 Lexington children on the Big Brothers Big Sisters waiting list by volunteering her time at Transylvania's Crimson Christmas.

Owens was among several members of the Transylvania community to participate in the afternoon holiday fun and excitement at the ninth annual Crimson Christmas, sponsored by Transylvania, faculty and staff. The children played games, made crafts and participated in face painting and storytelling.

Of course, no holiday celebration would have been complete without a visit from Santa Claus (Transylvanian Kameron Cable), who gave specially selected gifts to each child from his or her wish list. Mrs. Claus (Transylvania-Kate West) gave each child a Christmas stocking stuffed with goodies. The campus visitors ended their day with a festive dinner, provided by Sodexo-Morrell.

Karen Anderson, Transylvania's coordinator of community service and leadership said, "This year's event was a tremendous success. The children of the Big Brothers Big Sisters waiting list had a great time and our students had a lot of fun, too."

Angela is the daughter of Stephen and Omega Key Owens of Broadhead, Transylvania, founded in 1780, is the nation's sixteenth oldest institution of higher learning and is consistently ranked in national publications as one of the top liberal arts colleges in the country.

Warning!!!
To all friends, relatives, animals and neighbors out on the road as of Jan. 3, 2002, Elijah Lumsden was 16 years old and getting his drivers permit. Good luck and happy birthday to you Elijah. Love, Mom & Keith
