Answered prayer leads to couple's love and marriage

By Bill Stough
"God has taken good care of me," said Debbie Witt just before her wedding on Sept. 2. "I've learned He's always there even if you think you can't go through your trials."

Miss Witt, now Mrs. Frank Cykowski, is a quadriplegic who was paralyzed in an automobile accident in 1980 at age 19. She moved on after the accident, determined to succeed in life. With the help of her father, she eventually opened and ran an auto-parts store from a building adjacent to her residence.

Mrs. Cykowski has been featured in The Journal (see Jan. 31, 1999, issue) and in The Louisville Courier Journal. The Louisville paper featured her on page one of the "Knicks" section for her example in dealing with adversity.

A love story
One hundred seventy-five people from eight states attended the wedding in Berns, Ky.

"We were overwhelmed by the support and loving-kindness shown by those who attended and sent gifts," said Mrs. Cykowski.

"God has good timing in answering prayers," she said. "We just never know when, where or how. Endurance, patience and continued prayers pay off."

Mrs. Cykowski told how she met her husband, Frank.

"I met Bill and Scarlett Stough at the Feast of Tabernacles at Lexington, Ky., in the early '90s," she said. "Bill introduced me to Ronda Oryan through correspondence, and she would write me encouraging letters. Ronda met Frank Cykowski at a church youth camp in 1998. She recommended to Frank that he write to me."

"We started corresponding December of 1998. Frank lived in Chicago at that time. He visited me August of 2000. For some reason, I missed him instantly when he left."

Mrs. Cykowski had prayed for more than 17 years that God would help her find someone as a life mate who would "look beyond my disability."

"I got to thinking at one point that maybe there is no one for me, and
