"WHAT SAITH THE SCRIPTURES"

Let's begin from Gal. 1:1-18. Where the universe of the universe, I, the firstborn of every creature. I, by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are on earth, visible, and invisible, whether the thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers, all things were created by him, and for him. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church, which is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead: that in all things he might have the preeminence. (Paul is describing the exalted preeminence of Christ here in this text. He shows us when it comes to creation, he is the firstborn of every creature. Now, does this mean that God created Jesus first as our Watchtower friends say? No! For Paul went on to show that he created all things, he is preeminent. He has preeminence in that he sustains the universe, by him all things consist. In the spiritual realm in the church he has preeminence in that he is the head of the body, the church. When it comes to the resurrection, he has preeminence. Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead? Now, in all these realms, Jesus is the preeminent one! Now, the implication of all this, we should know it's total submission to the Lord Jesus Christ. "All you humbly say you get it.")
