ROCKCASTLE COUNTY FAIR.

The most successful enhibition of the flockcastle County Fair Association closed last Friday. If the payment of a large dividend to stockholders is the standard of success them, it would proper to say that the fair was a failure, since there will be no dividend declared. But the crowd in attendance, the exhibit of good stock of all kinds, the display in the floral hall, and the general satisfaction, and feeling of good will, all were satisful, and they enter the same of the fair, and expended that their time and money had been well sperit, begeaks of a grand success. The officers of the fair, and exhaltly loth Robins, who labored fairly fairly for a good fair, are due the creek. The following it a list of the premiults awarded for the second did yet.
