Fairview News

This will only be a very short col-umn as I don't feel very well. So many people around here have colds, flu and pneumonia.

We weren't able to attend worship

We weren't able to attend worship services Sunday, but heard that our plastor Bro. Albert E. Griffin delivered a wonderful message: "More power to him."

128 attended Sunday School.
Our deepest heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family and loved ones of Wallace Williams, who passed away last week and laid to rest in Berea on Saturday. His wife, Mrs. Nancy, Williams, who has beet hospitalized is now Rome. The whole family is loved and respected by everyone. I'm sure they have been and still are having many prayers prayed for them. They are wonderful friends and have always been there for us and the community and church when we needed them.

They are a lovely couple and we love them dearly, and wish them a long life of happiness and the gratest of God's blessings.

Please attend church and Sunday School every time you can. Love to all.

Abuse Prevention Awareness

In an effort to promote awareness and the prevention of abuse, the governor's office and the Kentucky Association of Sexual Assault Programs and Victims of Crime Association for Sexual Assault Programs and Victims of Crime Association have placed programs in action to raise public awareness on these crucial sausuas.

Abuse and neglect have been present in society, throughout recorded history. The impact of child abuse and neglect in our community is severe. According to Bureau of Justice, Statistica - Criminal Victimization 1998 Report states that persons twelve and older reported an estimated 39,000 attempted rapes, 110,000 completed rapes and nearly 133,000 threatened or completed sexual assaults.

Definitions of Abuse:

Definitions of Abuse:
Physical Abuse is generally defined as non-accidental acts, which cause injury to the body.
Emotional Abuse is more difficult to define but refers to any behavior, which endangers a child/person is health, morals or emotional well being.

Neglect pertains to negligent treatment or mattreatment of a child of person by an adult, which harms for child's health, welfare and safety. This may be the act of omission, which disregards the child's health, welfare and safety. This may be the act of omission, which disregards the child's needs in which suregard the control of the control of the more than the child in the child seed of the control of the child is set until yatministed or being used for sexually stimulated or being used for sexually stimulated or being used for sexuall stimulation of the perpetrator of another person.

lation of the perpertator or another person.

If you suspect any type of abuse you are urged to report these suspicions to your local Cabinet for Families and Children. For more information please call the National Hottine 1800-658-10Pe or Kentucky Child Abuse Hottine 1800-732-6200.
