the Marriott Griffin Gate Resort in Lexington fast Thursday night. The ceremony was held to honor the twelve Pioneer Inductees into the Kentucky Music Hall of Fame.

Kemtucky Music Hall of Fame.
The event caught the eye of ABC's national news and all local news agencies in the area.
The new Kemtucky Music Hall of Fame and Moseum, currently used construction at Renfito Valley, is on selectule with pulling construction, which design and exhibit fabrication for a spring 2002 grand opening. Grand Opening is now scheduled for May 17.

Grand Opening is now acreament.

May 17.

"All of the committees are hard at work and the elements of the project are coming together for our new statewide museum." said David Jury, chair of the misseum board of

The museum is a 16,600 square foot facility, which utilizes the reno-vated Lair Stables, listed on the Na-ional Register of Historic Places, as the portal to the new statewide mu-seum and Hall of Fame. While the

the polta to the new sufference me, some and Hall of Fame. While the various branches of country music adjustments of the various branches of country music adjustments of the sufference of the

A historic time-line will include exciting exhibits and discraminals taking the visitor from the pioneer beginnings of Kentucky mass; at "Brush Arbon," to the first WHAS Radio studio in the 1940's to a "Saliybooing" vintage automobile. It was "fallybooing" that promoted blue-grass and folk concerts in courthouse steps, town squares and ball fields all over the state.

e state.

Hall of Fame will include exhibit cases of instruments, artifacts costumes and memorabilia, and in ductees will be honored with differ ductees will be honored with differ-net colored acrylic plaques on glass walls that are designed like old show bills. The Hall of Fame room is a connector between the refurbished Lair Bare and the new museum. The museum is a non-profit cor-poration that has received two appropriations totaling $3.5 million from the Kennicky General Assembly in 1998 and 2000. Another $1 million has been raised in a private fund-raising effort. The museum is a $6 million project to be completed in two-phases.

The twelve Pioneer Inductoes are: ons totaling $3.5 million from John Lee Lair (1894-1985), of Livingston, Radio Pioheer, Folklor-ist, Writer, Entrepreneur, Founder of Renfre Valley Barn Dance. Lair was instrumental in discovering and developing the talents of ering and developing the talents of many country music performers, when a Lulubelle, Rarl & Harry, "Bed" Foley, Dee Hoppins, Linda Party, "Foley, Dee Hoppins, Linda Party, "Bed" Foley, Dee Hoppins, Linda Party, "Whitey" Ford, Lily May & the Concern Creek Girls, Merfer Travis, Honer & Jerley, "Slim" Miller and Ohl Joe Glark, a among others. Ill fit camberland Ridge Runners (the first string-band on radio to feature Kennischen auch State (1998). Socking to establish a base closer to home for the radio shows the was producing, Laur and many of hiverstrainers moved to station WLW in Clincinnal, Otho, He felt shar radio needed a little former cealing, a little more dealing, and a little more dealing, a littl

Cincinnati, Otho. He felt shat radio needed a little more easiers, a little less showmanship and a lot more heartfelt sinegrity. So there, at the Cincinnati Mutic Hall, the Renfrov Faller Barn Domer was born in 1971. In just two years, with the help offer of the Mitter of the New York of the New York

1939, when John Lee Lair stepped to the thistorybone on the stage of the big barn and said." This is the Renfro Valley Barn Daniec, coming to your direct from a real barn in Renfro Valley, the first and only barn dance on the air presented by the actual 28st dents of an actual community."

dents of an actual community.

A Kennicky tradition was born; a tradition that lives on today in Renfor Valley. A colleague once said of Lair. "John could be; on an instantenticie; a writer, producer, cartrousis; deliter, songwriter, salesman, architect and always a dream, architect and always a dream; "Ciyde Julian "Red" Yoley (1910-1988), of Blue Lick An outstand vivocal talent in Country, Gospel and Pron music.

Nozal talent in County, Cospet and Pop music.

Foley was one of the most versatile performers of all time. One of several Kentucky musicians recruised by John Lee Lair, he was a star of the WLS National Barn Dance in the 930%, a Grand Ole Opry-headliner in, the 1940% and also had lise own, network show. Awalon Time "with comedian "Red" Sketton. In the 1950%, he hosted "Ozark Jubilee" and helped many young performers to get their start. He recorded such huge hitses Vold Shep and Shole Opl-the Wister, which topped the charts for 13 weeks in 1944. A string of hits followed including. Obstationations.

tor 13 weeks in 1944. A string of hits followed including. Chartaniooga Show Shine Boy (another 13 weeks at number one), Birmingham Baunce vindinght, Good Vight, trene (duct with Ernest Jubb), and One By-One (duct-with Kirty Wells). But it was a gospel singer that "Red" really made his mark. His 1951 recording of Peace In the Fillip was the first Gos-pel record to self a pullion copies, and for the was the number one sacred soig-performer for five cohecutive years. He was elected to the Country Mu-sic Hall of Fame in 1967, the first Kenituckian to receive that bonon. Bradley Kinesid (1895-1993), of Pomit Leavell, Folk Singer, Radio Ploager, Songwire. University of the Peace of the Peace of the total control of the property of the peace the peac hange for a foxhound; Bradle would later dub this his old "houn dog guitar."

U.S. Congressman Harold Rogers, left, State Representative Danny Ford, center and John Clontz, a mem the Hall of Fame Executive Committee were on hand for Thursday night's Hall of Fame Induction Cere which was field at the Marriort Griffin Gate Resort in Lexington.

Beginning in 1926, he became the dog gatair.

Beginning in 1926, he became the legit mig star of country music on the tight mig star of country music on Charles and Charle

H. Russell Farmer, Kentucky

H: Russell Farmer, Kentucky Broadeaster's Association "Stephen Foster Award.

The inaugural Stephen Foster Award, presented by the Kentlicky Broadeaster's Association for outstanding Kentuckans affiliated with the broadeasting industry. Farmer is a producer director at KET's who has been largely responsible for creating and pseudoim grunch of KET's massic programming for 27-years.

Audiences tune in weekly for KET highly popular series, "Jubin-to-whelk features America's troots-lee," which features America's roots music from bluegrass to blues, folk, rock and jazz. Jubilee is in its sev-enth season and KET plans to release music from bulegrass to blues, folk, rock and juzz. Jubble is in its severally season and KT I plans to release the program antionally this spring. Jubble's would be the second mationally released KE1-produced music series, following the award-winning Tourseased KE1-produced music series, following the award-winning tourseased KE1-produced music series, following the award-winning tourseased KE1-produced such as the "Tour of Kentucky Folk ward, and it's one more series to add to the list of others Fameric has produced, such as the "Tour of Kentucky Folk ward, and it's one more series to add to the list of others Fameric has produced, such as the "Tour of Kentucky Folk ward, which is not of the produced, such as the "Tour of Kentucky Folk series has folked by the produced with the produced such high profile, specials as the Emmy Award winning." An Evening with Richard Davits and Friends (jazz) and Tades of Note." He also produced KET's documentary of Jean Richie-Woomton Born. "Which aired nationally on PBSs. in addition to "An Evening as the CE and "Only "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Cell Huller (1944). "The Tour of Kennicky Folk Life", "An Evening with Ce Clooney began her career at age 13, singing with her sister Betty on Cincinnati radio. Later became a with her recording of Come-On-A-My-House.

She starred in a number of films.
most ontably White Cristians; costarring with Bing Crosby in 1954, in which she was lauded for her performance of the ballad Love Tou Didn't Pho Right By Me. In the 1950's, she was signed to co-host, with Bing Crosby, a songfest radio show, which aired on CBS radio.

She became the star of her own television series in 1956 'The Rosemary, Clooney Show, which ran through 1957. In 1976, Bing Crosby asked her to join hims on his 50th Anniversary four; it would, be Anniversary tour; it would be Crosby's final tour and Clooney's comeback event. The highlight of the show was their duet On a Slow Boat show was their duel ton a stown town to Chino.

The next year, Clooney signed a recording contract, with Concord lazz, one that would produce a string of more than a dozen successful recordings including. Everything's Coming, Up Roste.

She was recently inducted into the National Broadcaster's Hall of Fame, and in 1995, ASCAP awarded her the "Pied Piper Award," describing her as "an American Musical Treasure" and one of the best friends a song ever Singer, Songwriter, Storyteller, Author.

One of vight children, Hall began playing at age 10. His early musical and DJ work was on WMOR in Morehead. He joined the army in 1957 and many of his songs in the 1960's were about his time in the army and Vietnam.
Upon leaving the army, he moved to Nachville in 1964, to work as as songwriter, and produced so many original songs he had to start singing himself to get them recorded.

songwriter, and produced so many original songs he had to start singing himself to get them recorded. His first record single, I Wisched, My Face in the Morning Den; was a Top 10 hit, as was the next, 4 Week in the County Jail, which ascended to number one on the County Charts. He wrote Harper Valley, P.T.A., which Jeannice, C. Riley took to number one on the U.S. Pop Charts, His aduban Soor-yider uffouled one of this most popular songs, Old Dogs, Chilipern and Watermelon Wine. He won a Grammy for 10m 1- Hall S Great. His and that the Pop Charts again in 1974-with I Love A member of the Songwriters Hall of Fame.

Tom T. Hall has left a legacy agaving one of the most endurable and recognizable voices in country ma.

Bill Monroe (1911-1996), sine: "Father of Bluegrass" M dolin, Singer, Songwriter.

Monroe was credited with developing and perfecting the Bluegrass music form and taught it to many great names in the industry includ-ing his proteges Lester Flatt and Earl Sections great names in the industry includ-great names in the industry includ-rating his proteges. Lesier Flatt and Earl-Scruggs.

A descendant of the fifth president of the United States, concrete lesies of the United States, concrete lesies in the Cartes of the Cartes of the properties of the Cartes of the Cartes in Section 1997. The Cartes of the properties of the Cartes of the industry of the Cartes of the Management of the Cartes of mortal song Blue Moon Kentucky.

mortal song Blue Moon Kentucky.

'During the 40's, Monroe toured with his test show, which included his famious baseball team and David Stringbean' Akeman, who provided comedy and banjo playing. In 1974, he was elected to the Coaunty Music Hall of Fame and in 1989 celebrated his Sothy ears as a member of the Oppy.

'Lionel Hampton, Governor's Lifetime Achievement Award'. Internationally acclaimed genius of the jazz world and undisputed thing the history of Louis Armstrong was a major influence in Hamp's young years. He had his first meeting with Armstrong, in 1930 and Armstrong was so impressed he hired the young drummer to join his hig band rhythm section.

It was Armstrong that turned It was Armstrong that turned Hapption onto the "vibes" and the first song they cut together was "Memories of You," which became a ternendous hit and became a clas-sic throughout the years. Hamption joined up with Benny Goodman in 1936, and the Benny Goodman Quar-tet made immediate musical history and the "Swing Era' bud begun awith nines like "Moonglow". Dusha' and "Whraphone Blues".

Rampton Forder and the search of the s

Songwriters & Singers
The Osborne Brothers antenny
the "High Lead Trio" style of Bluethe "High Lead Trio" style of grass music. From 1925, 38 played the WWVAWheeling, ree, and recording with Red had a 1958 hit on MGM-will More had a 1938 fitt on suspense of the Crossist's Oppy and had been supported by Crossist's Oppy and had several (course, a base successes including Rock Ten which has the distinction objection the state stong in Tennessee Their stong Kentucky Theorems for Visional Course of the Commonwealth Kentucky

The toured with many images stars contained to the Course of the Commonwealth of the Course of steen sour extension and the control of the control of a young G1 in the 1934 film Lorent Here to Exempts in which he some Re-enlistment Blues. He anadatom Re-enlistment Blues He anadatom of the Texas Plas bost on the Gene Eastwood Film. Horkstrik Mon-travis Walket The Sterny is a highly-regarded album of genetic guttar slols. In 1948, fie deviced the solid-body guttar He was elected to the Country Muss. Hall of Texas and the Country Muss. Hall of Texas in 1977.

Louis Marshall "Grandpa" Leine (1913-1998), Country Singer, Conse-dias, Barjo.

(1913-1998), Country Singer, Comedian, Banjo.

Jones was the youingest of 10 children of sharecropping parents spire performed music docally.

He began on radio as: "the youngest singer of old songs!" at a very early age, but received his famous nockname in 1935 while touring with Bradley Kincaid, who maintained that he sounded like a grumpy old man-hence he became "Grandpa" at age

We Cater!
Call for Details!

$399

