

Kentucky's New Telemarketing Law

By Hazel Jackson
County Extension Agent for Family and Consumer Sciences

A new telemarketing law was voted in by Kentucky legislators this month and was signed by the Governor on March 6, 2002. House bill 47 will become effective in mid July 2002.

This bill provides greater protection to consumers by stopping most telemarketing calls to Kentuckians who place their telephone numbers on a list maintained by the Attorney General's Office. The Attorney General's Office plans to make this list available to telemarketers on June 1, 2002.

Although the new law provides greater privacy protection than the existing law, it will still permit the following telemarketing calls, even to people on the list:

1. Calls from charitable organizations soliciting only donations. (If the telemarketer is soliciting a donation as part of a sale, the telemarketer must comply with the law.)
2. Calls regarding existing debts or contracts.
3. Calls from businesses with whom the Kentucky consumer has a prior or existing relationship.
4. Calls made with the express permission of the Kentucky consumer.
5. Business to business calls.

At this time there are two ways for Kentuckians to sign up on the telemarketing No Call list. The may sign up for the No Call list over the Internet by going to: www.law.state.ky.us/nocall/default.htm

Signing up over the Internet is the easiest and quickest way to get a telephone number on the No Call list. Kentuckians may also sign up for the No Call list by completing a signature card and returning it to the Attorney General's Office. Cards are available at the Extension Service. Call 256-2403 for more information.

March is National Nutrition Month. To celebrate healthy food choices, the Extension Service and the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program has taught nutrition classes in the primary level classes at Mt. Vernon Elementary. Primary 1 classes were taught a lesson on bacteria, hand-washing and food safety. A bug contest was sponsored by the Extension Service as a follow-up. The winners of the bug contest are pictured, front row from left: Marvin Carpenter and Brittany Cramer from Ms. Price's class, Adam Poynter and Samantha Vanzant from Ms. Phillips class. Second row from left: Jacob Watkins and Hannah Bullock from Ms. Carter's class, J.D. Morgan and Sartin Martin from Ms. Smith's class. Back row from left: Waylon Mink and Laiken Coffey from Ms. Webb's class and Elijah Lovell and Bret Noble from Ms. Vanzant's class.

These students participated in 4-H Clothing Projects at Broadhead Elementary on March 4th and 7th.
