

Locals attend mission trip

A group of 12 people from the Faith Harvest Fellowship Congregation in Mt. Vernon recently ministered during a mission trip in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. The group served two churches with music, preaching and gifts to the people. Dr. Mike Bryant, Sr., who is the Senior Pastor of Faith Harvest, led the Evangelist team. Pastor Michael Bryant, II and Pastor Matthew Bryant, both Associate Pastors at Faith Harvest, led the music and also did some of the preaching. Pastor Jimmy Squires of Abundant Life Church in Radcliff, coordinated the mission project. Faith Harvest is delighted to report that God did some very miraculous work during the week. Numerous people were saved, filled, delivered and healed. The team praises the Lord for His mighty works.

Other members of the team are Roberto Sullivan, translator; Terry Flinchum, Sarah Flinchum, Juanita Cromer, Lois Baker, Tina Abney and Holly Bryant.

Pastor Mike, Sr. and Pastor Matt will be traveling to Guatemala in September to teach at a Bible College. They will be teaching students from five Central American Countries. Faith Harvest helps support mission work on three continents that include ten countries.

Pastor Mike, Sr., says, "those of us at Faith Harvest believe strongly in Jesus' command to evangelize the world. We are a mission church with a world vision. It is our heart to minister to people in Rockcastle County, the region and the world." Future mission trip plans include back to Mexico, more Central American Countries, Africa and possibly trips to South America, Vietnam and China.

People from other churches are always welcome to join Faith Harvest on any of their scheduled trips. We are currently praying about a trip to Africa in the early part of 2003. If you are interested, please call the church office at 256-5246.
