SSG Lear returns home

Staff Sergeant William (Bill) D. Lear returned home August 9th after a 7 1/2 month tour of Active Duty with the Kentucky Army National Guard.

It has been the first time his unit (Co. E 1/149th (M) Inf.) of Somerset has been called to Active Duty since WWII.

SSG Lear was sent to Europe and was stationed in Baum Holder, Germany.

There they immediately took over the responsibilities and duties of the present U.S. Forces there, enabling those troops to continue on with day-to-day mission for the future!

SSG Lear and Co. E provide force protection for the main gates into the base as well as the housing areas and schools of the community.

Lear has completed 20 years of service with the Kentucky National Guard and is still presently active.

He is a 1980 graduate from RCHS. He is married to Joyce C. Durham Lear and has a daughter, Bridgette Renea Lear of Orlando, He
