"What Saith the Scriptures"

We have been discussing the name of Jesus. We have shown that biblical names often have a meaning, signifying the character, nature of the person. We were looking last week from 18:9 6. Jesus is called the everlasting Father in our text. Now our oneness friends err in saying Jesus and God the Father is one person. No, the phrase father signifies the idea of protector, sustainer. Notice in Gen 45:8, "So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house; and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt." Now did Joseph begin Pharaoh? No, but Joseph did act as a protector and sustainer for Pharaoh as a father would to his children. Lastly, Jesus is called the Prince of Peace in our text. Jesus makes peace between God and man, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" Rom 5:1. He also makes peace between Jew and Gentile in the one body. "For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace." Eph 2:14-15
