Of all the hundreds of old standard songs in bluegrass flusic, jimmy Martin's rendition of "Tennessee" is at least among my favorite five. I've never once listened to it without shivers running simmy statum steamonou i feminesee" is at least among my favorite

Of course Tennesseeans call the Soborne Brothers' "Rocky Top" the state song which just goes to show about how out of touch with quality, if not reality, the PR guys in Nashvulle really are o'r, conversely, how in touch Bob and Sonny's handlers are with the political powers that is a All I want to say here is that if I'm ever elected Governor of Tennessee the first order of business is the state song.

Anyway, I found myself drawn to Tennessee last, week for the three-day Annual Gathering of the Federation of Appalachian Housing Enterprises (FAHE). FAHE, headquarreed in Berea, a city that desperately desires to be Appalachian and from which you µ an actually see it in the distance, is a cooperative of 32 non-profit, affordable housing providers scattered throughout the central Appalachian counties of Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and we law Virginia and we all get together once a year to learn a few new three states and make sure everybedy is using the right song, book and singing the same bodg, how the sure week of the state of the sta

The FAHE Annual Gathering ro we had it in Gatlinburg at the Park Vista Resort. The Park Vista is relatively class act, and, in my hi opinion, the finest place to stay or hold a conference in the Smokies and the staff is as at least as professional and thorough as you might expect of looked again and sure enough, in tiny letters that required reading glasses undermeath the advertised price, it said just that. So I went back inside and I was informed that the cheapest available room was $99.00 and that if went up the road I was going to have to pay double that. Her cheap rooms were already taken, she said, even though there was not a sensitive parking lot in the parking lot.

To make a long story short, I got a room for $49.95 plus 10% tax at the total control of the state of the sta

It's still full of water but it has long since evolved into a marine ecosystem that you can observe off the trunk of your car and they don't want you swimming in it because you might upset the wildlife. In other words, don't get the mosquirose mad or you could wind up with the West Nile Vinis.

But seriously folks, if you are going to the Smokies, Townsend is the best place to go to avoid the crowds and the best place to see and shop for authentic stuff while being in easy, access of the Park's major features. Most, if not all, of the genuine Smoky, Mountain hand-made stuff in Pigeon Forge and Gatlinburg says Pakistand T could find none of those places in the Tennessez zip code directory. Just don't plan on staying overnight in Townsend because lodging is racket and a rip-off and you can stay in Maryville some 20 casy miles away for a fraction of the local price.

"What Saith the Scriptures'

"W hat Saith the DCTIPUICES

We have been discussing the name of Jesus. We have seen he is calledJesus, the Word, Messiah or Christ, Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Now all this tells us the called nature of his name. "Wherefore God dus hath highly estuded him, and given him a name which is above every name." That at the same of Jesus very hime should how, of things in havene, and hings in earth, and things, maker the earth. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus.
Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Phil 29-11. Have you bowed your knee in submission to this great King? We should bow to him, which says that we have a choice. If we bow in submission now, it will be to our salvation! If we do not, we shall how in the day of judgment. For it syrition, As I live, suith the Lord, every knee that how to me, and every tonguic shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God." Rom 14:11-12. But I've wait until that day to bow the knee, we will confess to our damnation. You have a choice while you are living and the world is still standing. Let us know if we can to bow the knee, we will confess to our damnation. You have a che while you are living and the world is still standing. Let us know if we help in a study of the world of God.
