Quail Homemakers

The Quail Homemakers Club met Monday evening, November 18th at the home of Kristi Reynolds with sixteen members and two visitors present.

The lesson "Easy as Pie Desserts" was presented by Shirley Martin. Shirley also read a new children's book, September 11th, to the group. The book was written by a group of first graders. Several ladies purchased copies of the book for Christmas gifts.

Karpy McKibben and Charlene Gentry demonstrated and helped the club members make a craft, Harvest Pine.

Congratulations go to four of the Quail Homemakers Club members for being selected to fill offices in the Wilderness Trail Area Homemakers Club and Rockcastle County Homemakers Club.

Noreita Thompson is the new area president and Virginia Hensel is treasurer. Millie Eaton has been chosen as the new county president and Teet Stevens as the vice-president. Virginia Lee also holds the office of treasurer in the county club.

The next meeting will be December 16th at the home of Teet Stevens. A potluck dinner will be served and secret pals will be revealed.

Visitors are always welcome and encouraged to become a member of the Quail Homemakers Club.
