On December 2, 1987, our father, Ray Rickels left to go live with our heavenly father, Jesus Christ. He was a man of great faith and a very loving heart for each and every person he came in contact with. He would help anyone who needed help and try and make that person's life a little easier. He was the son of the late Jim (Rod) Rickels and Sally (Boone) Rickels. He was self-employed as a painter and often would be gone all week and come home on week-ends. His nine kids would miss him so much, as did our mother. It would be such a joyous time, when mother would say, "Here comes Daddy." I can imagine hearing the Lord say, "Here comes one of my children." When Daddy passed away and went to Heaven. "We miss you Daddy and pray we will see you again some day."
Loving us always,
Ray Jr., Gene, Midgie, Rodger, Ann, Glenn, Doug, Jane and Jimmy
