

Rock vs. Bluebirds

By: Preston Parrett
The Bluebirds migrated southward. And there was a whole flock. The Bluebirds were ranked high but this didn't spare the Rock. The weather was cold. But the Rock was hot. As they dismantled the Bluebirds. And beat them a lot. It was a one-sided game. With the winner going to state. The Rock offense and defense were fantastic. As they wouldn't let the Bluebirds out of the starting gate. On the Rock's first possession. They threw up yardage by land and by air.

With Aaron Anderkit hitting Michael Hayes. For a seventeen yard touchdown just there. The Bluebirds had a high-powered offense. But the Rock Pounce defense would not yield. As they kept Highlands advancing back wards. Instead of going forward down the field. The Rock on their second possession. Literally blew the defense away. As they marched down to the one. Where "Big A" scored on his first play. The Rock had a homogenous second quarter. When Marty Reagan scored from the linebackers. Then he took it in from the eleven. With the prettiest interception ever seen. Then James Russell picked one off.

For a ten yard score. And the hard fighting Bluebirds. Were falling behind more and more. It was in the final seconds. When the Bluebirds struck. Klingenberg scored from the three. But it was too little and the Bluebirds were out of luck. The Rock put on an awesome display. Of offensive and defensive power. As they totally dominated the game. And kept Highlands from getting started out there. I've read up all of my objectives. In my words of praise. But I've never seen a better coached or better played game. In all of my born days. When we play in Louisville. Let's wrap the season up nice and neat. By getting revenge of the Rebels. And taking them down to defeat. GO ROCK!!!

Also over $2,200 in the $7,500 of bond monies was ordered-released and payable to the Rockcastle Chapter of the Wild Turkey Federation for their use in educational or scholarship purposes. We also hope the Department for Fish and Wildlife will divert a significant portion of the $25,000 to Rockcastle County programs," Burdette said. "And early indicators suggest that they intend so, so we look forward to seeing more equities spent toward hunter education, hunting safety, conservation and sportsmen's programs." "Myself and the department are very pleased with the support of the county attorney's office and the citizens of Rockcastle County," said Officer Isaacs, Department of Fish and Wildlife. It appears from a review of recent court cases, arrests and reports from elected officials that joint investigations and cooperation between law enforcement agencies, particularly Fish and Wildlife and the KSP, as well as local law enforcement, has resulted in a successful campaign against illegal hunting activities in Rockcastle County.
