"What Saith the Scriptures"

In James 4:11-12 we read, "Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?" In the kingdom of God, Jesus is King, the absolute monarch. Jesus has all authority, legislative authority, executive authority, judicial authority, in the kingdom of God. As Jesus said, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth." Matt 28:18. Now some folks want to edge in on Jesus's authority. They want to be the lawmaker for the Lord, or to be the judge and jury in human redemption. Folks try decide that Jesus did not know what he was talking about, for instance in the plan of salvation. They decide that men can be saved other ways other than what Jesus said. This is a very presumptuous and arrogant on their part to de-throne Jesus from his exalted position. Who am I that I can withstand God? Who am I to legislate new ways for man to be saved. Who am I to be judge and jury in evaluating the spiritual destiny of folks, with my human standards of thinking, is 55 R, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD." I think I will let the Lord be the lawmaker and the final judge.

Experience an old-fashioned Christmas shopping once again. Take a sentimental trip to Hiatt's 5&10 in Mt. Vernon where there's:

Peppermint in the candy dish
Popcorn strung on the Christmas tree
Christmas music filling the air
Candles burning brightly

"While old-fashioned Christmas shopping is increasingly rare, the quaint charm of Hiatt's 5&10 remains an unexpected treasure for those who chance upon it and a comforting presence for those who have shopped there for years."

We wish you a Merry Christmas from everyone at
