

Seniors Honored

The Rockcastle County High School Rockets and Lady Rockets honored their senior ball players and cheerleaders during the final home games of the season. Shown above is Ben Allen with his parents, Darren and Danetta Allen and sister, Bailee Sue.

Bryson Amyx, shown with his mother, Beth Abney, grandfather Harold Amyx and Brandon Abney.

Sara Adams, escorted by her parents, Barry and Carrie Adams.

Emily Miller, escorted by her parents, Donnie and Theresa Minton.

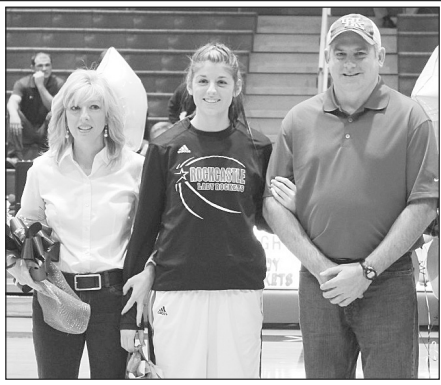

John Curtis Wilson, shown with his parents, Keven and Donna Wilson and sister, Kristen.

Ashton Arvin, escorted by his parents, Tony and Rebekah Arvin.

Zach Poynter, shown with his parents, Mark and Sheila Poynter and sister Sarah.

Michaela Hunter, shown with her parents, Steve and Kim Hunter.

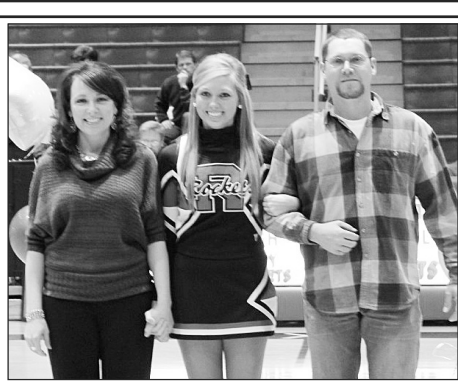

Emily Mink, escorted by her parents, Jeff and Tracy Mink and sister, Melanie.

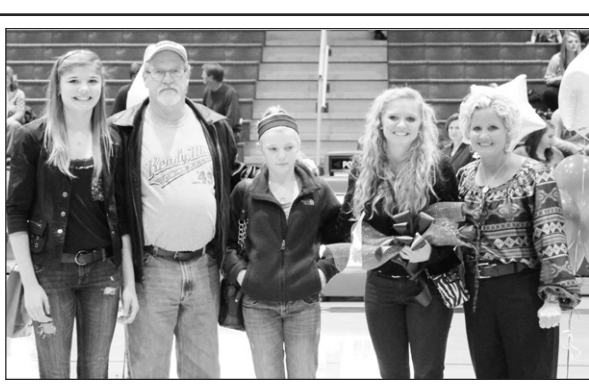

Kaitlyn Delph, escorted by her parents, Rodney Ellison and Paula and David Russell and brother, Ethan Russell.

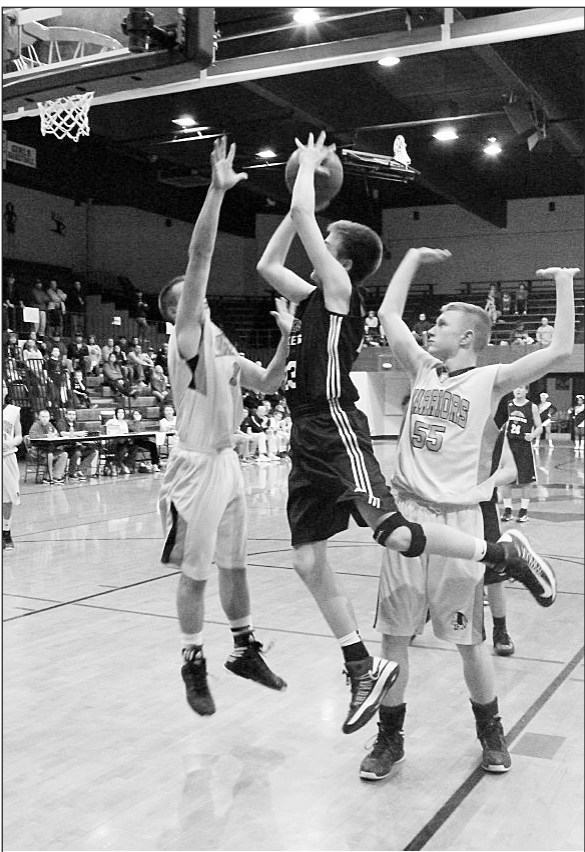

Rachel Johnson, escorted by her parents, Wade and Sheila Johnson, brother Morgan, sister Jasmin Johnson and niece Zaylin Johnson.

Amber Barrett, escorted on senior night by her parents, Dewayne Barrett and Christie Turner.

Representing senior Lady Rocket Alexis Chasteen were members of her family: Alyssa, Roy, Katelyn and Abby Chasteen and coach Chrysti Noble. Alexis was scheduled for knee surgery the same day of the senior festivities. Chas-teen suffered a season ending knee injury for the second straight year in January.

8th grader Lucas Gentry goes up for two points in the Rockets 41-40 double overtime win over Foley in the tournament championship game last Saturday at RCMS.

8th grader John Cornelius goes up for a block in the Rockets' double overtime win over Foley last Saturday. Also pictured is Carson Noble.

Sixth grader J.D. Hamilton applies defense to a Clark Moores player in the 6th grade's loss in the championship game last Saturday.

Sara Hammond having solid season at Louisville

University of Louisville Lady Cardinal and former Lady Rocket, Sara Hammond, is having a solid sophomore season.

Through 26 games she has established herself as a starting power forward and once again this year was voted a co-captain. Sara averages 10.8 points a game (2nd on team) and 6.5 rebounds (leads team), has recorded 5 double-doubles on the season including her most recent game with 17 points and 13 rebounds to help the Lady Cardinals avenge an earlier loss to DePaul, with an 81-55 win at home. She was named to All-Tournament team at All-Tournament team at the Hardwood for Hope Classic in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. With a 21-5 record (9-3 in Big East), the Lady Cardinals are currently ranked

(Cont. to pg. A8)

Sara Hammond was also named to the All-Tournament team at the Hardwood for Hope Classic in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

Coker College honors Angie Lawrence

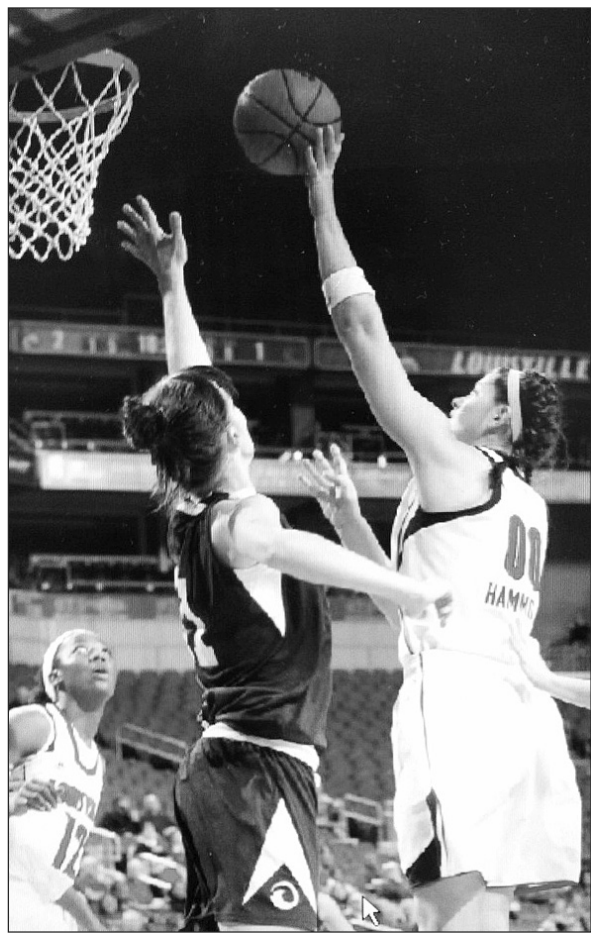

Coker College student Angie Lawrence has recently been named to the 2012 Conference Carolinas Fall Presidential Honor Roll. A total of 120 Coker student-athletes were recognized by the conference. Lawrence is a sophomore physical education and sport studies major from Brodhead and is the daughter of Teddy and Marcy Lawrence.

A total of 1,724 student-athletes were recognized on the fall honor roll. In order to qualify, a student-athlete must maintain a grade-point average of 3.20 or higher. Conference Carolinas presents its honor roll twice a year, covering the fall and spring academic semesters.

The recognition by the conference capped off a fall semester which saw 10 Coker teams post team GPAs of at least 3.0. They were as follows: men's basketball (3.0), baseball (3.1), men's golf (3.1), men's tennis (3.6), men's cross country (3.3), women's basketball (3.2), women's golf (3.3), women's soccer (3.1), women's volleyball (3.2) and women's cross country (3.2). Each team had at least five student-athletes with a 3.0 or better.

*Good Luck
Rockets and Lady Rockets in tourney action*

Sophomore Sara Hammond is having a solid season for the University of Louisville Lady Cardinals. Hammond averages 10.8 points and 6.5 rebounds per game.