Miranda Dannielle Harding, daughter of Betsy and Terry Harding of Mt. Vernon and granddaughter of David and Katherine Harding, has been accepted to Berea College beginning with the fall semester of 2013. As an enrolled student at Berea, she will receive a full tuition scholarship, valued at more than $100,000. She was accepted based on her academic achievement, community service and leadership potential. Miranda has an ACT score of 29 and a 4.0 GPA. Several schools offered Miranda a full-tuition scholarship, including Eastern Kentucky University and the University of Kentucky. She chose Berea to be closer to home.

Sarah Burdine will celebrate her 18th birthday March 19th. We want to wish her a happy birthday and congratulate her on her acceptance to The University of the Cumberlands. Sarah is the daughter of Lisa Burdine and granddaughter of Murphy and Margaret Martin and the late Billy Burdine.

Leadership Rockcastle

Leadership Rockcastle began its 10th class on Saturday, March 16th with eleven participants. The opening session was held at the Red Hill Horse Camp which is operated by Gene Philbeck who is a graduate of the 2010 class.

Director Donna Morgan and Rodney Wolfenbarger of Brushy Fork Institute facilitated the meeting. The Rockcastle County Development Board sponsors this program and has graduated a total of 114 county residents. Leadership Rockcastle participants meet once a month to discuss county issues, meet with county officials and leaders and discuss leadership skills.

Graduates of Leadership Rockcastle become voting members of the Rockcastle County Development Board.
