

Scenes from 2013 Relay for Life and Cancer Survivor Dinner

The Rockcastle Relay team sold 18 torches for the "Torch of Hope" which honors those whose lives were affected by cancer. The team also sold 250 luminaries this year as well.

Livingston cancer survivor Dell Ponder walking through the "cheer line" after having his name called at the Relay for Life event last Friday night.

Kim Robinson and Lillie Hensley at the Relay for Life Survivors dinner

Lisa Rasor and Vaughn Rasor at the Relay for Life Survivors dinner last Friday night.

Sixty-three cancer survivors and their families attended the Survivors Dinner and ceremony during Rockcastle County Relay for Life last Friday night.

The Bittersweet Cloggers were awarded the "Best Campsite" award at the Relay for Life event. The Bittersweet Cloggers were also the top fundraising team in the family and friends category, raising a total of $4,246.63.

Roundstone Baptist Church provided and served the meal and provided entertainment for the Relay for Life Survivors dinner in the RCHS cafeteria last Friday night.

The Rockcastle County Relay for Life Cheerleaders performed for the crowd during the opening ceremony last Friday night.

Citizens Bank Loan Officer and local "Pyromaniac" John Adams is shown firing up the grill at the Citizens Bank campsite last Friday night. Citizens Bank placed second in the top business fundraising teams with $5,389.85. Mt. Vernon IGA placed first with $6,200 and Rockcastle Family Wellness/Medical Arts placed third with $3,034.60.

Ottawa Baptist Church

Presents

Vacation Bible School

KICK OFF PARTY

Featuring:

Backyard Ministries

Come and enjoy the following:

- ✦ Inflatables
- ✦ Hamburgers & hotdogs
- ✦ French Fries & Nachos
- ✦ Drinks & Snow Cones

Saturday, June 1st @ 7:00 p.m.
at Ottawa Baptist Church

RAIN CANCELS