“Bust”

received numerous tips that Kidwell was trafficking Oxycodone

When Adams approached Kidwell’s vehicle, he saw Collins reach for his wallet in his right back pants pocket but when he noticed Adams he turned loose of his wallet. Adams also noticed Kidwell trying to place something in her right front pants pocket. When Adams asked her what she was doing she replied “nothing.”

Adams then asked Kidwell to step out of her vehicle and to not touch her pockets. As she exited the vehicle, Adams noticed that she had something in her left hand. Adams asked her to give him the object and when she did not comply he pried it from her hand and found that Kidwell was holding a zip-lock bag that contained three Oxycodone tablets.

After receiving consent from Kidwell to search her vehicle, Adams found $300 in cash, various business cards for a pharmacy in West Virginia and a pain clinic in Rome, Georgia. Adams also found two envelopes with pill counts marked on them.

Upon receiving consent to search Collins’ vehicle, Adams found two Oxycodone tablets. Collins told Adams that he had purchased the two Oxycodone tablets from Kidwell for $40.

Kidwell was charged with trafficking a controlled substance and tampering with physical evidence. Collins was charged with possession of a controlled substance.

Both Kidwell and Collins were lodged in the Rockcastle County Detention Center. Collins remains lodged on a $5,000 unsecured bond and Kidwell was later released on a $5,000 unsecured bond.

Signal office will be closed July 4th and 5th

Kaiden Doan, 9, of Mt. Vernon is all smiles as he slides down one of the inflatables. Blast in the Valley had inflatables throughout the event for the children.

Chager Doan, 11, of Mt. Vernon anticipates the pool as he jumps down an inflatable slide at the annual Blast in the Valley.

The Medley Boys performed at Blast in the Valley Sunday night. Entertainment was also provided by Old Towne Project, Wild River Band and the Renfro Valley Band.

Bible Talk

In our study this month we would like to look at John’s exhortation in 1 John 2:15-17. “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.”

The World? - What does John mean here about the world? Does he mean the people? No, for God loves the world of people, Jn.3:16. Does he mean the planet itself? No, for the world (planet) is very good, Gen.1:31. The world that we are not to love is the realm of iniquity the domain of darkness, which Satan is king of, John 12:31, “Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.” Now let us consider the 3 avenues of enticement that the Devil uses to draw us into his realm, the world of sin and iniquity.

The Lust of the Flesh - Satan appeals to the desires of the flesh, seeking to get us to find fulfillment in an unlawful way: a short cut to satisfaction. Satan has used the same 3 avenues of enticement since the beginning of time as with mother Eve, in Gen.3:1-6.

The Lust of the Eyes - He appeals the lust, or desires of the eyes. The problem with all his allurements is the bondage of sin that comes with temptation that is partaken of. It is like when you go fishing, you have to put some bait on the hook to get the fish to bite the hook. It is the hook that Mr. Fish is not considering in the allurements. Even so, when Satan is luring us to commit sin, it is the pleasures of sin that is luring us to do wrong.

The Pride of Life - Satan lures us at times with the pride of life. Appealing to our ego and pride to do that which is wrong. Jesus was tempted by the same 3 avenues of temptation in Matt.4 and Luke 4. Temptation is common to all humanity, “There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.” 1Cor.10:13. Let us look to Jesus and his word to see that sin wears a mask, and Satan is wanting to devour us as a roaring lion. Let us love God and what is right.

We invite you to study and worship with us at the Providence church of Christ.

Our Time of Services:

Sunday 10am Bible Study, Worship 10:40 & 6:00pm; Wednesday 7:00pm.
